AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

ELLINGER AND FOOTE's fine exhibitions continues to attract crowded houses, and the most fastidious as to entertainments of a proper character cannot but be delighted with Com. Foote, Col. Small, Miss Eliza Nestel, and the artistic vocalists and musicians. Give them a call to-night.

FORD'S THEATER.—The fall season was successfully inaugurated at Ford's last night. The Florences were brilliant as they have ever been, and made the house resound with laugh ter. To-night again will be performed "Handy Andy," "Mischievous Annie," and the "Returned Volunteer." The Florences are supported by a good company. CANTERBURY .- Manager Lea has many new and attractive features this week, and the bill is made up of melodious songs, graceful dances, beautiful ballets, interesting pantomimes, and amusing and laughter-provoking Ethiopian acts, by some of the best performers in the concert hall business.

FRUIT FESTIVAL .- The ladies of the Methodist Protestant Church will commence a fruit festival to-night, at the Union League Rooms, on 9th street. The festival will continue during the week.

MEETING OF THE UNTERRIFIED DEMOCRA-CY-They are Waiting for the Platform-An Explosion Upon the Topic of Kinky Hair.-A meet. ing of the National Democratic association was held last night at Parker's Hall. Pennsylvania avenue. In the absence of the regular officers of the Association, Mr. Thomas Thornley was called to the chair, and Mr Sam'l Brereton acted as secretary After the election of some 20 new members, Mr. R. Adams, on behalf of the decoration committee, announced that their new flag had arrived in town, and would be thrown to the breeze at 9 o'clock to-morrow (this) evening, if the nomination was heard of at that time. Mr. Adams hoped that a large crowd of persons would be in attendance to give three hearty cheers on the occasion. Mr. Fred Smith then made a statement in relation to the committee appointed two weeks ago to make preparations to celebrate the rati-fication of the Constitution of the United States, and proposed to ratify the nominees of the Chicago Convention at the same time. Mr. Smith, before taking his seat, desired to congratulate his Democratic friends at the bright prospects that had arisen in the horizon. It would not be long, said the speaker, before they would lay Abe Lincoln in a grave from which he would never resurrect. The Democrats would then look closely into the actions of Lincoln and all under him, and see why our citizens had been buried in living tombs, see why our people had been taken from their homes and firesides and buried in Fort Lafayette, see why our happiness was taken away from us, and our blessed country thrown into confusion. Then a man could come here jingling some-pleased with the remarks of his friend Smith. and said that here in the shades of the White House there were men who were bold enough to come forward and denounce bad acts. [Applause.] Six months ago Republicans who would have voted for Mr. Lincoln would now vote to defeat him. He (the speaker) had met a gentleman on the avenue, who came here from Massachusetts for the purpose of re-enlisting men, who told him (Mr. H.) that is some of the regiments he had visited there was hardly a man who would vote for Lincoln. Mr. Hope concluded by saying he thought he

Mr. J. T. Ennis was next called upon, who made a few remarks in relation to who the nominees would be, and urged upon the association the necessity and importance of working day and night to elect them. The campaign would be short and decisive, but it was necessary for all to put a shoulder to the wheel. They should circulate documents, and every member should devote a portion of his time to

A COMPLICATED GOOSE CASE. - Several days since Mr. Benjamin Berkely, of the Sixth Ward, lost several geese by a number of women in and a colored woman in Mr. B.'s emhome. Mr. Berkely refused to comply with this request, but told her to identify the goose, to bring the case up for judicial action. Miss in attendance as well as one of the geese in disit should be placed on the floor where she knew that it would waddle, and a peculiar waddle ried through its gosling days. Mr. Berkely was equally certain that the goose was his, and testified to its being minus a toe, and also brought witnesses to the fact, but at this juncture the colored woman and Mrs. Ready got into a wordy muss that threatened to come to blows, and the goose getting infected by the ex-citement set up a horrible squeaking which it followed up by committing a nuisance on the floor, after which, as if the spirit of old nick was in her, she flew upon the Squire's desk, where, with two or three awkward flaps of where, with two or three awkward flaps of her wings sent the justice spapers flying "every which way." He promptly dismissed the case and ordered the office to be cleared, goose and

THE WORK COMMENCED .- The ground has been broken preparatory to the erection of the contemplated additional wing of the Navy Department. This Department was formerly but two stories high, but with the increase of busi-ness, it was found necessary to add a new story on it, and now the accommodations are found to be so limited that it is necessary to erect an additional wing on the south of the present structure, which will be two stories high, and contain six rooms and a hall on each AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN .- The Draft .- The near approach of the time for the drafting wheel to be set in motion has arged those who are anxious to escape to organize insurance clubs to obtain substitutes. Mayor Addison has put a plan into operation which has become quite popular. The way is for the citizens of the town to deposit in the Bank of Commerce the sum of one hundred dollars each, and the whole amount is to be divided among those who draw the service prize. Great activity is displayed by the citizens subject to the draft to make the amount as large as possible, in order to secure substitutes even at exorbitant rates.

IMPORTANT TO PILOTS .- Capt. E. S. Allen, our excellent Quartermaster at the 6th street wharf station, has issued an important notice to pilots, as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns. Schooners have been placed at upper and lower Cedar Points, in the positions occupied by the light boats previous to their destruction by the rebels. Lights will be kept burning on these schooners from sunset to sunrise.

GRAND LARCENY .- On Saturday, some of the officers at the Marine Barracks discovered that some of the mess money was missing, and one of them, Lieut. N. Nokes, missed a breastpin valued at $15. Suspicion fell on Wm. Kelion, a colored boy employed there, and he was arrested by officer H. Harrison, and the pin was found on him. He was taken before Justice Cull, who committed him to jail.

MOLDED COLLARS, of Gray's patent, deserve the attention of all who would have a neat and well fitting collar. They are for sale by Wall, Stephens & Co., 334 Pennsylvania avenue, and by dealers in furnishing goods generally. These collars are made in every style, fit comfortably and neatly to the neck, and have smooth and evenly finished edges.

By constitute a fund for the exclusive benefit of those of the depositors who may be drafted. The scheme will work thus: Should there be one hundred depositors, for instance, and only twenty of them be drafted, eighty would be protected from service by paying one hundred dollars each, while the whole ten thousand dollars would be distributed in sums of five hundred dollars each to the twenty who were drafted. With that they could obtain substitutes or keep the money and go into service, at their own option. into service, at their own option.

Of course the real result will be so varied from the one here given as an illustration as to make it the one here given as an illustration as to make it more or less beneficial to the drafted parties; but there is this absolute containty about it: that every drafted man will get the whole of his money back, with the almost equal certainty of more than deuble that sum, and a probability of his receiving a sum of not less than five hundred dollars. In this scheme there can be no juggling, no precedence of favorite individuals, or tricks played off upon the unsuspecting. There will be but two well ascertained parties: those who escape the draft and lose their hundred dollars, and those who are drafted and get all the money deposited by the whole association. by the whole association.
Should this scheme fail of a faverable result, or work any particular hardship to one of the de-positors, the subscriber has in view an adjunctive scheme which will afford the necessary relief without any additional costs to the association.
